STONE WILL RUN AGAIN.

"I'll Be There If I'm Alive," He Says in Regard to Race.

St. Louis, Nov. 17.—"By Gad I'll make the race for senator again, and I'll be elected, too, by the biggest majority I've ever had yet."

"This was the declaration of United States Senator Stone today when asked if he would again be a candidate for the office he now holds.

"It will be some time yet—until the election for senator," he added, "and I never cross my bridges until I come to them, but, if I live, you can say I'll be right there."

Senator Stone said he only wanted peace and that he should not have been counted as against the president for that.

Thanksgiving.

On Nov. 7.—President Wilson issued his 1917 Thanksgiving proclamation, calling upon the nation, even in the midst of the sorrow and great peril of a world shaken by war, to thank God for blessings that are better than mere peace of mind and prosperity of enterprise.

Our Fathers first raised the Altar of Thanksgiving in a wilderness beset with innumerable unknown dangers. We now raise it in the face of a stupendous and inexorable duty. The proclamation of our President fixing Thursday, November 29, as Thanksgiving day, and we as a religious body think it our duty to comply with his proclamation as near as we know how and can.

And for this reason and purpose we make this announcement that on Thursday the 29 of Nov.
1917. Set apart the hour of 11 o'clock for special services at the Colony Tabernacle. And do invite everybody to come and assist in those special services in order to do the will of our President of these United States and the good will of our noble Governor of the State of Missouri.
Everyone who may wish to say anything they will have the opportunity. While this will not be the School Convention as you will see in another column.

We would be glad if the schools would meet with us on this day also.

War News.

The worlds war is on hands.
And freedoms cause we adore, Then help support our soldier band's.
Who are gathered from shore to shore.

The Noble voice of our President hear, In behalf of the glorious cause And to Governor Gardener the counsels dear, Those principals we must espouse.

The battle rages thick and fast.
Our help is needed sure, Come with your might be not the last, Give from the heart so pure.

—Who is it that would not help support, our souldier boys fighting for the Liberty of the whole world? We do not want to waste, but we want to plant and reap and divide with our souldier boys.

First Exemption indraft Canceled.

DISTRICT APPEAL BOARD
HERE SAYS ALL MUST AN-SWER QUESTIONNAIRE.

OLD APPEALS ARE DEAD.

Cases of Certified Men also will not be Reopened Missouri Adjutant says.

Members of the district appeal board here have received many inquiries during the last few days as to whether men exempted on the first draft would have to fill out and send in to their draft boards copies of the questionnaire, soon to be mailed to each man.

"Every man of draft age will have to go through the mill," said a board member who emphasized the fact that all men will be classified whether called for examination at any previous time or not.

The board is making every effort now to clear away miscellaneous business so as to be ready for the new call which it believed will be in February.

J. H. McCord adjutant general of Missouri has sent word that pursuant to the order just issued by the provost marshal general he will grant no permis-sions to reopen the cases to certified men.

No word has been received by local boards of the proposal announced from Washington to permit no drafted men to volunteer after December 15.

"Whatever the cause, this will mean a great recruiting boom," a board member said when informed of the order.

Now is the time

It ever there was a time when the American people should be united in Democracy it is now, which was first inaugurated in Philadelphia in 1776. And led to victory on the battlefield, by General Washington, afterwards he served as first President of the United States. Those principals should never die in the hearts of the American people. But to day they should tie them together in heart and hand. As they did in that day.

AMOUNT OF THE SECOND LIBERTY LOAN.

The amount of the Second Liberty Loan subscriptions which will be accepted is $3,808,766,150, which is the $3,000,000,000 offered and one-half of the over subscription of approximately 54 per cent.
Secretary McAdoo states in answer to inquiries, that the full amount of the subscription will not be accepted for the reason that the Government must not alter the basis upon which the issue of bonds was offered; that the banks and the public have adjusted themselves to the basis offering as originally made; and that it would be extremely unwise to alter that basis after the subscriptions have been received.

THE WAR-SAVINGS PLAN IN BRIEF.

The war-savings plan provided for in the bond act of September 24 1917, goes into operation Monday December 3. Government certificates of indebtedness are to be sold in two denominations —thrif stamps costing 25 cents each and war-savings stamps costing from $4.12 to $4.23 according to date of purchase.

When $4 worth of thrif stamps are obtained a war-savings stamp can be secured in exchange for them by paying the difference between $4 and the current price of the war-savings stamp.

War-savings stamps can be purchased for $4.12 during the months of December, 1917 and January, 1918, but will cost 1 cent more for each succeeding month in the year 1918. they are redeemable on January 1, 1928, for $5, which amounts to 4 per cent on the amount invested compounded quarterly.

Although these investments do not mature until January 1, 1928, on 10 days, written notice after January 1, 1918, such certificates will be redeemed by postmasters at their cost to the purchaser plus 1 cent a month on each war-savings stamp.
The thrif stamps do not bear interest.

The stamps and certificates can be obtained from post offices, banks, or trust companies, at most railroad stations, stores, factories, and many other public places.
